

I support petition RM-10787, and believe that all HF frequencies be available to licensed amateur radio operators, similiar to what is now occuring in Western Europe. The differences between the various license classes should pertain only to the amount of frequency available on each band, not to the exclusion of usage that is now extant. Terrence Glass, N0YXE